

License Agreement

This agreement is concluded between the buyer of a ticket file, who is identified by his or her email address (referred to as 'buyer' in the following), and

Thomas Heckmann
Habichtstr. 38
90766 Fürth
Germany

as operator of the website <http://www.audio4video.de> (referred to as seller in the following). The seller commits to this agreement by his offering on the website, the buyer by buying and before marking the agreement check box on the website.

Subject of the Agreement

The seller is proprietor of the music (audio clips), which he offers on his website for download. The buyer purchases a ticket file, that allows him or her to download a predefined number of audio clips on to his computer and store them there. By doing so, the buyer acquires a private and commercial right of usage of these audio clips downloaded via the ticket file, in return for paying the price set on the website. The buyer may use the audio clips in private or commercial productions, as long as he acknowledges the authorship of the seller and does not pass on the unmodified audio clips to third parties. If the buyer has modified the clips (e.g. by using them as background music in slide or video shows), it is of course allowed to pass them on. Using the clips according to this license agreement is payed by the price, i.e. the seller will not claim any further fees for the usage.

Right of Withdrawal

By German law, the buyer has a right of withdrawal. To claim fulfillment, the buyer can send the unused ticket file by email to the seller (admin@audio4video.de) within 31 days after purchase. In return, the seller will refund the price by transferring it back to the account from where it was payed. If the buyer uses the ticket file within the 31 days, he renounces his right of withdrawal.

Validity of the Ticket File

The ticket file remains valid as long as the seller offers audio clips on his website, but at least 3 months after purchase. If the seller cancels his offer, he will publish this cancelation 3 months in advance on his website. During this time, the buyer can use his ticket file for further downloads or return it for refund by email to the seller (admin@audio4video.de). In this case the seller will refund the price of the unused tickets.

Privacy

The buyer is known to the sender only via his or her emails address. The seller commits to store this email address only for processing the purchase and that he will not disclose this email address to third parties.

Other

If some single determinations of this agreement should be invalid because of higher regulations, the rest of the determinations remain valid. Buyer and seller agree furthermore to conclude determinations by mutual consent if they are missing in this agreement. This agreement is sent to the buyer together with the ticket file per email. For every purchase the version of the agreement is valid, that is sent in that email.
